

RACGP Western Australia Award recipients

Congratulations to the 2022 RACGP Award recipient for WA:

Dr Craig Berg – General Practitioner of the Year: Awarded for his dedication to supporting patients in residential aged care facilities over many years.

Craig has dedicated his career to caring for patients in residential aged care facilities and is renowned for providing compassionate and ongoing support to his patients, their families and to the facilities – often providing care 7 days a week and at any hour.

Beyond his dedication to his patients, this recipient is a strong advocate for the profession and has been involved in teaching and training GPs. He has been a long standing examiner, former Assessment Panel Chair for the RACGP, a medical educator with WAGPET and GP supervisor.

In the height of the pandemic in 2022, he continued to provide care for his facilities, many of which were locked down with COVID outbreaks; caring for the most vulnerable of patients during a time of real need.
